

Conditions of carriage and other business terms and conditions
valid for the bus services of STUDENT AGENCY k.s., which operates bus services under the brand name RegioJet.

STUDENT AGENCY k.s., nám. Svobody 17, 602 00 Brno, company identification number (IČO): 25317075 issues these Contractual Transport Terms and Conditions for regular bus lines operated by the carrier STUDENT AGENCY k.s., which operates under the brand name RegioJet, in accordance with the Decree of the Ministry of Transport of the Czech Republic No. 175/2000 Coll. on transport regulations for public railway and road passenger transport. These conditions are effective from 1 April 2021 and they are available at all points of sale and on all vehicles belonging to these lines.

All the relationships resulting from the Contractual Transport Terms and Conditions are governed by the law of the Czech Republic, according to Regulation 593/2008 (Article 5, paragraph 2) – Rome I.

Bodies responsible for out-of-court consumer dispute settlements are a) the Ministry of Transport <http://www.mdcr.cz/cs/> - in international passenger bus transport services by road; b) Transport Authorities (Dopravní úřady) – in their administrative districts in all matters which are not within the responsibility of the Ministry of Transport. The centre for resolving consumer disputes according to the Consumer Protection Act is “Česká obchodní inspekce (Czech Trade Inspection Authority), Oddělení mimosoudního řešení spotřebitelských sporů (Alternative Dispute Resolution Department - ADR), Štěpánská 15, 120 00 Praha 2.” You can find our Privacy Policy at www.regiojet.cz/privacy-policy.html. The passenger acknowledges and agrees with the fact that all phone conversations between the passenger and the company of RegioJet / STUDENT AGENCY are monitored.

1 Conclusion and fulfilment of transport contract on passenger transport

In accordance with section §3 of the above mentioned decree, the transport contract is concluded when the passenger claims their right of transport resulting from the transport document by boarding the carrier's vehicle. The transport contract between the passenger and the carrier also abides by these Contractual Transport Terms and Conditions as well as the corresponding tariff. The list of the carrier's tariffs valid for individual bus services is specified in the carrier's price list.

1.1 Carrier's rights and obligations

1.1.1. By concluding the transport contract the carrier pledges to transport passengers from the station of departure to the destination station, which are both specified in the transport document, duly and on time.

1.1.2. The passenger acknowledges that the provision of the advertised extra services, especially hot drinks, movie projection, daily press, steward(ess) on board, wi-fi Internet connection, and toilet on board is entirely up to the carrier, and the passenger is in no way entitled to the provision of these services by entering into the contract. When there is not enough time for attending to the services, they are not offered.

1.1.3. The carrier reserves the right, in accordance with the applicable legal regulations, for changes in timetables, use of substitute buses, and changes of seats. If the timetable is changed, the passenger is entitled to the compensation of the fare or its part (in the case of a partly used tickets), when it is not possible to use the ticket completely.

When substitute buses are used, the advertised extra services cannot be guaranteed.

Substitute buses do not have to be equipped with safety belts. If the passengers refuse to travel for this reason, they are entitled to a full refund of fare.

1.1.4. On extra buses or economy buses, the advertised extra services are not provided.

1.1.5. Vehicles mostly belonging to other carriers serve as “extra” and “economy” buses, and full service is not provided on them. Economy buses are also buses of the carrier without a steward(ess) on board, and therefore full service is not provided.

1.1.6. Fare compensation

- the carrier guarantees the passengers timely arrival to their destination station according to the official timetable. If the passengers are not transported in time, they are entitled to compensation, depending on the length of the route according to the official timetable, and on the length and type of delay. The services/routes are divided into groups and compensated as follows:

- Group A: the length of the route according to the official timetable is up to 1 hour 30 minutes incl.

Type of Delay	Caused by the Carrier		Not Caused by the Carrier
Length of Delay (in minutes)	31-60	61 and more	31-90	91 and more
Amount of Compensation (in %)	50	100	25	100

- Group B: the length of the route according to the official timetable is from 1 hour 31 minutes to 3 hours

Type of Delay	Caused by the Carrier		Not Caused by the Carrier
Length of Delay (in minutes)	46-90	91 and more	61-120	121 and more
Amount of Compensation (in %)	50	100	25	100

- Group C: the length of the route according to the official timetable is from 3 hours 1 minute to 5 hours

Type of Delay	Caused by the Carrier		Not Caused by the Carrier
Length of Delay (in minutes)	61-120	121 and more	91-180	181 and more
Amount of Compensation (in %)	50	100	25	100

- Group D: the length of the route according to the official timetable is from 5 hours 1 minute

Type of Delay	Caused by the Carrier		Not Caused by the Carrier
Length of Delay (in minutes)	121-180	181 and more	121-240	241 and more
Amount of Compensation (in %)	50	100	25	100

- an unavoidable delay is a delay which was not caused by the carrier (e.g.: a car accident, impassable highway, disaster, or any other contingencies caused by force majeure, except for international bus routes, delays and delays caused by passport, medical or other control.)
- Passenger is obliged to have a negative test for Covid-19 before departure and follow obligations according to the regulations of transit and destination states related with the Covid-19 epidemic. The carrier will not refund the ticket when passenger does not follow the conditions of the transit and destination states or the police and other responsible authorities will not allow passenger to continue the journey.
- an avoidable delay is a delay caused by the carrier (e.g. technical faults)
- in the event of a combination of an avoidable delay caused by the carrier and of an unavoidable delay, the passenger is entitled to compensation, the type of which is based on which of the delays was longer. The compensations cannot be added up or combined. The maximum amount of the compensation is 100 % of the fare.
- the guarantee of the timely arrival does not apply to services/buses/routes operated by a different carrier (e.g. Deutsche Bahn, SAD Prešov, Sanytour, West Bahn etc.) and to connecting buses of other carriers. The guarantee of the timely arrival does not apply on interrail/eurail tickets.
- regardless of the reasons which caused the delay and the provisions hereinabove, the compensations do not apply to delays announced prior to the departures from the stations and stops (announced at the station through the owner of the stop, announced by a RegioJet / STUDENT AGENCY employee, or announced via a text message, e-mail or by phone)

1.1.7. Departure Guarantee

- a supplementary service offered by the carrier with the ticket for a fee of 100 CZK /4 € per person, to be purchased online and at the RegioJet / STUDENT AGENCY points of sale. The service cannot be cancelled after purchase.
- this service can only be purchased for selected airport destinations served by the carrier as offered in the reservation system, more than 24 hours prior to the departure of the service at the latest
- if the passenger misses his/her connecting flight due to the delayed flight bus/train of the carrier, the carrier shall guarantee the payment of the cost of the passenger's unused ticket, under the condition that the minimum time period between the scheduled arrival of the carrier's bus/train to the destination and the time of the departure of the aircraft has been complied with:
 - flights to the Schengen area countries - the required minimum time period of 2.5 hours
 - flights outside the Schengen area - the required minimum time period of 3.5 hours
- if all the conditions for claiming compensation under the purchased supplementary service are met, the passenger is obliged to send the carrier a confirmation of the missed departure from the airline within 30 days:
 - in writing to RegioJet / STUDENT AGENCY, Customer Service, Dům pánů z Lipé - nám. Svobody 17, 602 00 Brno.
- The confirmation must be officially stamped by the airline.
- in the electronic form at the e-mail address reditel@regiojet.cz. The confirmation must be signed by the airline.

1.1.8. When making a ticket reservation, the carrier pledges to satisfy the passenger's demands for specific available seats.

1.1.9 In the event of any payment by the passenger on board of the bus, the carrier is obliged to accept the quintuple of the price of the goods/service at the most, up to the maximum amount of 5,000 CZK/190 € or its equivalent in other currencies.

1.1.10 In order to improve services and improve the safety of the services provided by the carrier, the vehicles of the carrier are equipped with a camera system monitoring the interior and partly the exterior of the vehicle including the passengers. By purchasing the ticket the passengers acknowledge this fact and give consent to this monitoring.

1.2 Passenger's rights and obligation

- 1.2.1. By concluding the transport contract the passenger pledges to abide by the transport rules and these Contractual Transport Terms and Conditions and to pay the price of the transport (hereinafter referred to as fare) according to the respective tariff.
- 1.2.2. The passengers are obliged to present a valid transport document for the purposes of checking the conclusion of this contract, throughout the course of the fulfilment of the transport contract. The data on the transport document must correspond with the data in the passenger's travel document. In the event the passenger does not have a valid transport document, the carrier is obliged not to accept him/her for transport and the passenger is in no way entitled to a refund of the fare. Each passenger is personally responsible for abiding by the passport and customs rules and regulations of the countries into which or through which they are travelling, and is obliged to abide by the customs or other administrative rules and regulations related to their luggage. If the passenger is not allowed to continue in their journey by the police authorities or customs authorities, the passenger is not entitled to any refund of the fare, neither in full or in part, nor are they entitled to any other compensation or indemnification. The passenger is obliged to pay the carrier the expenses incurred to the carrier as a result of the passenger not complying with the regulations.
 - 1.2.2.1. Eurotunnel will charge a fine of £ 2000 per person for compliance with entry documents (bad or forged documents, invalid documents,...). This fine will always be required of a passenger who does not fulfill the conditions for entry into the country and causes the fine. The company STUDENT AGENCY k.s. will enforce this fine from the passenger if it is forced to pay the fine on behalf of the client due to compensation for the damage incurred. The passenger declares that he has read the conditions for entry into the United Kingdom and undertakes to comply with them. If this does not happen, he undertakes to compensate the carrier for the damage incurred.
- 1.2.3. By purchasing the ticket/deposit on account/deposit to RegioJet Pay ticket the customer agrees with the Contractual Transport Terms and Conditions and gives the carrier consent to personal data processing.
- 1.2.4. The passengers are obliged to check whether the ticket was issued according to their order immediately upon obtaining the ticket. If the ticket does not correspond to the data required, they are entitled to refuse the ticket. If the passengers notify about the discrepancies in the data on the ticket later, we will proceed in accordance with cancellation conditions, and this will not be considered as a complaint.

- 1.2.5. If the passenger does not come in time for the departure or misses the departure, they are not entitled to any compensation or refund of the fare. For tickets composed of several sections boarding the bus means boarding the first bus on their entire route. If the passenger does not use any of the sections/legs of the combined route, they forfeit their right to be transported by any of the following buses on their ticket as well as their right to any refund of the unused fare.
- 1.2.6. No fare is refunded for unused or partly used ticket.
- 1.2.7. The passenger is entitled to the refund of the fare if the service they planned to use for transport, is more than thirty (30) minutes late from the passenger's station of departure and the passenger with a valid ticket gave up the journey for this reason.
- 1.2.8. The passenger is entitled to a fare refund when the transport is not carried out for reasons on the part of the carrier.
- 1.2.9. If the delay of the service is caused by reasons on the part of the carrier and results in the passenger missing the connection within one transport contract or if the commenced transport by the service was not completed, the passenger is entitled to one of the following options:
 - transport by the nearest suitable bus of the same carrier to the place of destination,
 - fare refund for the part of journey that was not carried out,
 - transport by the nearest suitable bus of the same carrier to the departure station and fare refund.
- 1.2.10. The passenger is not entitled to compensation if he/she was not transported on time.
- 1.2.11. The passenger must receive the possible awarded compensation within 6 months from the day it was awarded.
- 1.2.12. The credit balance on the account/RegioJet Pay ticket caused by cancellations of tickets/award of compensation/ deposit may be withdrawn in cash in STUDENT AGENCY k.s. or RegioJet a.s. points of sale or used for the payment of further tickets. Account balances resulting from compensation having been credited to the accounts and exceeding the amount of 500 CZK/20 EUR can only be paid out after a valid ID has been presented. This also applies to payments of balances from several accounts, moreover, the original of the ticket is required for payments related to Fixed Date Tickets; with Open and Electronic tickets, it needs to be verified that the email addresses provided for the accounts are identical. The balance on the no-name ticket (unidentified) may be withdrawn up to the amount of 1000 CZK/40 €. When withdrawing an amount larger than 1000 CZK /40 € the ticket must be with a name (identifiable), and an ID must be presented. The ID must be presented whenever the ticket is identifiable. The balances cannot be sent to bank accounts and they must be used solely for the purpose of purchase of tickets. The credit balance created by an online deposit (payment card, PayU, etc.) at www.regiojet.cz cannot be paid to passengers in cash, it will be returned in the same way. Increasing the balance on the account or RegioJet Pay ticket is only possible in the currency in which this ticket/account was set up. The maximum amount of a deposit at points of sale is 5000 CZK/ 200 €. Amounts outside this range may be deposited online (using a payment card, PayU, etc.) at www.regiojet.cz.
- 1.2.13. Passengers may be excluded from transport if they come to the bus under the influence of alcohol, narcotic or other psychotropic substances; and/or if they, in spite of being warned:
 - smokes, drinks excessive amounts of alcohol or uses narcotics or other psychotropic substances on the bus,

3 Transport of people and animals

3.1 General provisions

- 3.1.1. Passengers are required to wear a seatbelt throughout the journey, if their seat is equipped with a seatbelt. If a passenger leaves their seat at any time during the journey, they do so at their own risk, and are well aware of their obligation to have their seatbelt fastened whenever the bus is in motion.
- 3.1.2. The passengers must follow the safety instructions of the employees of the carrier while boarding the bus or getting off, and throughout the journey. Passengers are also obliged to use safety handles and other security features the bus is equipped with when boarding the bus, getting off, and when moving around the bus, so that they would minimize possible security risks.
- 3.1.3. The location of stops can change due to organizational and operational reasons. The carrier recommends that passengers check the time and place of departure before the journey.
- 3.1.4. The arrivals and departures stated in timetables and on tickets are always stated in local times.
- 3.1.5. Children under 12 incl. must not be seated on the seats behind the driver (seats No. 1, 2, 3 and 4), on the seats behind the back door and on the middle seat in the last row. When purchasing tickets, the passengers are obliged to report that the ticket is for a passenger under the age of 13.
- 3.1.6. A suitable child restraint is recommended (a child safety seat or a booster cushion) for children under 3 years of age with you. A child restraint system is not compulsory for older children, and common and compulsory bus equipment does not include such restraints. Children under 3 years of age might not be transported if they do not have a child safety seat or a booster cushion with them for transport purposes.

- 3.1.7. It is not possible to transport passengers without a seat reservation.
- 3.1.8. Each passenger is entitled only to 1 seat.
- 3.1.9. It is possible to transport guide and assistance dogs (properly labelled and with a pertinent card) accompanying a person with ZTP/P card or the dog trainer on the bus. The passenger is obliged to ensure that the animal will not dirty or damage the vehicle or endanger other passengers. Price conditions are specified in points 3.2.4, 3.3.3 and 3.4.9.
- 3.1.10. Consumption of brought alcohol as well as of narcotics and psychotropic substances is prohibited. The sale of alcoholic drinks to particular passengers may be limited at crew's discretion.
- 3.1.11. If the selection of seats was not available when purchasing the tickets, the steward(ess) assigns the seats to passengers when they board the bus.
- 3.1.12. The carrier does not provide assistance services for passengers with limited mobility or other disabilities. The vehicles of the carrier do not have a wheelchair access. Exceptional placement of vehicles with platforms for the transport of passengers on wheelchairs is indicated in the booking system.

3.2 Transport on domestic lines in the Czech Republic and Slovakia:

- 3.2.1. On domestic lines in the Czech Republic, a child 0-5 inclusive accompanied by a person over 10 years of age can be transported free of charge and the child is entitled to their own seat. Each accompanied child aged up to 5 inclusive transported free of charge has to be accompanied by a different person over 10 years of age.
- 3.2.2. Children aged up to 5 incl. may only be transported when accompanied by a person older than 10 years of age.
