Special fare

- 1) The special fare is a price regulated by a notice of the Ministry of Finance of the Czech Republic. It is based on regular fare prices and it is defined for particular categories of passengers. The special fare is valid only for routes or part of the route completed in the Czech Republic.
- 2) If the passenger cannot prove their entitlement to a special fare when requested to do so by a representative of RegioJet a.s. during the validity of the contract of carriage, they shall pay the difference on the fare to which they can actually prove entitlement between the departure and the arrival stations printed on the ticket. The relevant form of ID for, or proof of entitlement to, the special fare cannot be subsequently taken into account and the additional charge cannot be reimbursed.

2.1 Special fare for children under the age of 6

Children under the age of 6 (i.e. until and including the day preceding their 6th birthday) travel for free (with a 100% discount) and only on national train connections. Children under the age of 6 must be accompanied by a person older than 10. The passenger is obliged to prove their entitlement to the discount by submitting a form of ID showing the date of birth. In this case, proof of identity does not need to have a photo of the holder (e.g. a health insurance company card is sufficient). These provisions apply to Business (1st class), Standard (2nd class), Low cost (2nd class) fare classes on trains of category R. Applies to Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class) and Business (1st class) fare classes on trains of category RJ.

2.2 Special fare for children aged 6 to 18

Passengers aged 6 to 18. Passengers aged 6 to 15 do not prove their entitlement to the special (reduced) fare. Passengers aged 15 to 18 (i.e. until and including the day preceding their 18th birthday) shall prove their entitlement to the reduced fare by submitting a valid official ID with a photo or digital representation of their likeness, first name and last name, and date of birth. The entitlement can also be proved by submitting a “pupil ID” with essential data as governed by the applicable legal regulations which is mutually acknowledged by individual public transport carriers, or a valid ISIC card. The latter shows the expiration date, or else is considered valid if it bears a “revalidation sticker” with holographic elements showing the new date of expiry. Upon boarding, the carrier may also request that the passenger prove their age by submitting an ID card issued by the carrier or a form of ID issued within the framework of the respective integrated public transport system, including electronic data carriers. This special fare only applies to Low cost (2nd class) on trains of category R. Valid for fare classes Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class), Lounger (2nd class), Sleeper for men and women (2nd class), Sleeper - women (2nd class) on trains of category RJ.

2.3 Special fare for pupils and students under the age of 26

Pupils and students aged 18 to 26 (i.e. until and including the day preceding their 26th birthday) who attend elementary school or who are systematically preparing for their future professions at a secondary school, conservatory, college or university (full-time study) in the Czech Republic, or whose studies are identical to those of the aforementioned types of school in terms of scope and curriculum, or who have a similar status abroad. Entitlement is proved by submitting a “pupil ID” with essential data as governed by the applicable legal regulations, i.e. a current photo, first name and last name, date of birth, and the name of the educational institution. Entitlement can also be proved by submitting a valid ISIC card. The latter shows the expiration date, or else is considered valid if it bears a “revalidation sticker” with holographic elements showing the new date of expiry. Upon boarding, the carrier may also request that the passenger prove their age by submitting an ID card issued by the carrier or a form of ID issued within the framework of the respective integrated public transport system, including electronic data carriers. This special fare only applies to Low cost (2nd class) on trains of category R. Applies to fare classes Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class), Couchette (2nd class), Sleeper male and female (2nd class), Sleeper female (2nd class) on trains of category RJ.

2.4 Special fare for passengers aged 65 and over

Passengers aged 65 and over. Entitlement to a reduced (special) fare must be proved with a form of ID of a citizen of the EU, or passport, or any other official valid form of ID with a photo or digital representation of the passenger’s likeness, first name and last name, and date of birth. Upon boarding, the carrier may also request that the passenger prove their age by submitting an ID card issued by the carrier or a form of ID issued within the framework of the respective integrated public transport system, including electronic data carriers. This special fare only applies to Low cost (2nd class) on trains of category R. Applies to fare classes Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class), Couchette (2nd class), Sleeper male and female (2nd class), Sleeper female (2nd class) on trains of category RJ.

2.5 Special fare for persons with severe disabilities (holders of ZTP, ZTP/P cards) and their assistants

Persons with severe disabilities who have been granted special status in the Czech Republic pursuant to the applicable legal regulations and who are holders of the ZTP or ZTP/P card issued in the Czech Republic are entitled to a special fare corresponding to 25% of the regular fare (i.e. a 75% discount). In addition to the special fare, holders of the ZTP/P card are entitled to:

2.5.1. free carriage of one assistant on a Class 2 journey. A guide dog may constitute an "assistant" in the case of a blind passenger;

2.5.2. free carriage of a baby carriage as a piece of luggage, if the holder of the ZTP/P card is a child. A holder of a ZTP/P card cannot be assisted by another holder of the same card, with the exception of an assistant for a blind passenger, or a child under the age of 10. Entitlement to the special fare for persons with severe disabilities is proved by submitting the ZTP or ZTP/P card. Carriage of the assistant of a holder of the ZTP/P card (without the actual holder of the ZTP/P card being present) is not possible. This special fare only applies to Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class), Lounger (2nd class), Sleeper for men and women (2nd class), Sleeper - women (2nd class) on trains of category RJ.

2.6 Special fares for disabled persons in degree 3

Passengers with a third-degree disability prove their entitlement to a fare at a 50% discount on the regular (full) fare by presenting a "Fare Discount Certificate for Third-Degree Disabled" issued by the Czech Social Security Administration and proof of identity. The fare discount certificate can be in paper form or in electronic form (PDF document or OneTicket application). This special fare only applies to Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class), Lounger (2nd class), Sleeper for men and women (2nd class), Sleeper - women (2nd class) on trains of category RJ.

2.7 Special fare for parents (court-appointed guardians) visiting children with disabilities in institutions on the territory of the Czech Republic

Parents or court-appointed guardians (hereinafter as "parents") travelling to visit their child with a physical, mental or sensory disability, or chronic illness, who resides on a long-term or permanent basis (for more than 3 months) in a healthcare, educational and social assistance centre or institution (hereinafter as "institution") are entitled to a reduced fare corresponding to 25% of the regular fare. Entitlement to this special fare attaches to the journey from the station nearest to the permanent residence address of the parent to the station nearest to the institution and back, reflecting the shortest or most convenient direction in terms of duration of travel. This special fare for parents (court-appointed guardians) visiting children with disabilities in institutions can only be purchased from staff on board the train. The ticket from the station nearest to the institution to the place of residence may be purchased with the first day of validity being at the latest the next day following the confirmation of the visit to the child in the institution. Entitlement to this special fare is proved with a valid form of ID issued by the institution where the child lives. This special fare only applies to Low cost (2nd class) on trains of category R. Applies to fare classes Low cost (2nd class), Standard (2nd class), Relax (2nd class), Couchette (2nd class), Sleeper male and female (2nd class), Sleeper female (2nd class) on trains of category RJ.
